Can anyone do it?

“If you can read and write, you can do government contracts.”

–Eric E. Coffie

8 Reasons you CAN

1

No minimum education requirements - not even a license

8 Reasons you CAN

2

You don't have to be squeaky clean

8 Reasons you CAN

3 You don't have to do all the work.

8 Reasons you CAN

They don't care about your race, sexual preference or hairstyle.

4

8 Reasons you CAN

5

You don't have to have all the money. Other people can bring money to the table.

8 Reasons you CAN

6 Being privileged is a disadvantage.

When starting with the government, being average is a strength, not a weakness!

8 Reasons you CAN

The government picks the person with the lowest acceptable price.

8 Reasons you CAN

The government has to buy from small businesses, people of color, women, veterans, etc.

8

Conclusion

"My college friends are not millionaires and my millionaire friends never went to college, they are all government contractors."

–Eric E. Coffie

Homework

Fear and Failure in Government Contracting | ...
Live GovCon Training
Day 2
Fear and Failure in Government Contracting
SCORE CONTRACTS FEAR helpless alone insecure lost worthless outcast discarded ignored
SHAME GRIEF VULNERABLE dismissed insignificant DISTRESS PAIN mortal fearful unguarded dispensable unvalued deficient small ANGUISH DREAD inadequate CONFUSED neglected forsaken

Watch 'FEAR'