Office of Small Business Utilization (OSBU)

Mission: The GSA OSBU has nationwide responsibility for GSA's small business programs, and is the chief advocate for small and disadvantaged businesses. We promote increased access to GSA's nationwide procurement opportunities, and engage in activities that make it possible for the small business community to meet key contracting experts and to receive counseling on the federal procurement process.

GSA's Goal is to be a model for outstanding customer service in government and to fulfill the agency mission of providing the best value in real estate, acquisition, and technology services in support of the American people.

Key Priorities of our Administrator, Emily Murphy are: Ethical Leadership, Improve Transparency, Reduce Duplication, and Increase Competition.

The GSA OSBU monitors and implements small business policies within GSA, and manages a range of socioeconomic programs mandated by law, and in support of the Small Business Administration, such as the:

Central Office:
1800 F Street NW
7th floor, 3rd Wing (730
Washington, DC 20405
